

SOCIETY OF SOUTHWESTERN ENTOMOLOGISTS

The Society of Southwestern Entomologists (formerly the Southwestern Entomological Society) was organized in 1976 with the objective of fostering entomological accomplishment in the southwestern US and Mexico. A primary function of the Society is the publication of the Southwestern Entomologist journal, which is published quarterly (March, June, September and December). Membership in the Society includes a subscription to the Southwestern Entomologist and Supplements. Members also enjoy a reduced page charge rate for publishing in the Southwestern Entomologist. Membership is $20.00 per calendar year.
